

Magistrate Mirela Turc Rudary

Mirela has dedicated her legal career to serving families and children, and is thrilled to serve as Magistrate in the Ashtabula County Juvenile Court. A 2010 graduate of Case Western Reserve University, magna cum laude, Phi Beta Kappa, in Political Science and History, Mirela went on to earn her law degree from CWRU Law in 2013. While in law school, she served as Executive Notes Editor on Health Matrix: Journal of Law-Medicine, and as student representative for the Federal Bar Association. She supplemented her education by working at the Cuyahoga County Prosecutor's Office, the Lake County Court of Common Pleas, and Reminger Co, LPA. Mirela obtained her license to practice law in November 2013.

Upon graduation from law school, Mirela served as staff attorney in the Lake County Domestic Relations Court for nearly seven years. In that time, she wrote extensively, drafting memos and presentations, and briefing complex family law matters. Mirela secured several rounds of grant funding through the Ohio Supreme Court's Technology Grant Fund, used to revamp the Court's website and to purchase necessary software and hardware. She served as a facilitator of quarterly brief advice divorce clinics, in conjunction with Legal Aid, for pro se individuals in Lake, Ashtabula, and Geauga Counties.

Mirela began her service as Magistrate in the Ashtabula County Juvenile Court upon her appointment by the Hon. Albert S. Campese in November 2020. Mirela and her husband, Dan, an attorney, are parents to two young children.

Mirela is a member of the Ohio State Bar Association (OSBA), Lake County Bar Association, Cleveland Metropolitan Bar Association, and a new member of the Ashtabula County Bar Association.
