

Greta Moore is a lifelong resident of Ashtabula County and a graduate of Ashtabula High School. She attended Lakeland Community College and Kent State University- Ashtabula. Greta received her Associates Degree in Accounting/Business Technology from Kent State in 2014. Greta is currently enrolled in Lakeland Community College to complete her Associate Degree in the Paralegal Field.

Greta has been an Administrative Assistant for 32 years. She has worked in various fields of business, such as Automotive, Plastics, Trucking, Banking and Tool and Die. She has been the Administrative Assistant of Ashtabula County Probate/Juvenile Courts since 2010, both under Judge Charles Hague and Judge Albert Camplese. Greta also has served a Secretary and Treasurer on the Executive Board of the Ashtabula Senior Advocacy and Protective Network (ASPAN).

Greta resides in Andover where her and her late husband, Rick Moore have raised their two (2) daughters, Lacy, 24, and Dinae, 17. She also has three (3) step daughters, (1) step son and 13 grandchildren. Greta stays very involved with her children's sports and school activities at Pymatuning Valley Local Schools, and helps with school activities when available. She is currently visiting colleges with her youngest daughter to attend in the fall of 2025 and enjoying her adult daughter setting up her first home. Greta further spends most of her summer time helping her youngest daughter training and work with her dairy cows in the 4-H program.

Greta also has her own home business. She owns "Moore's Wing and Prayer Crafts and Fudge. Greta's family helps her with the business and together they make and sell many different homemade items and LOTS of fudge throughout the year. One of her favorite things is being able to donate to good causes.