  21. Child(ren)'s participation in religious observances and religious education; and
  22. Any other parenting issues that were not previously addressed by the parties.
- D. Report to child protective services, law enforcement, or other appropriate authority pursuant to the procedures set forth in R.C. 2151.421, any suspected child abuse or neglect and any apparent serious risk of harm to a family member's self, another family member, or a third party;
- E. Interview the minor child(ren) privately in order to ascertain the child(ren)'s needs as to the issues being discussed. In conducting such an interview, the parenting coordinator shall avoid forcing a child to choose between the parties or otherwise putting a child in the middle of the parties' conflicts;
- F. Interview members of the immediate family or extended family of parties and other relevant third parties reasonably deemed necessary by the parenting coordinator. The parties shall provide the parenting coordinator with all necessary information to contact and communicate with the above-mentioned persons, including phone numbers, mailing and residence addresses and email addresses;
- G. Require psychotherapy or other mental health care including substance abuse assessment or counseling for the child.
- H. Require psychological testing or other assessment of the children and parents.

IV. CONFIDENTIALITY.

- A. Communications between the parties and the parenting coordinator are not confidential. Therefore, written and oral communications, negotiations and statements made by the parties in the course of working together can and may be disclosed to others. Information provided by the parties, either in discussions with the parenting coordinator and/or in writing by the parties, will be considered by the parenting coordinator when making decisions and may be disclosed in his/her written decisions.

B. The parties are on notice that the parenting coordinator may disclose the following information:

1. He/she has reason to believe that a child is in need of protection;
2. Either party or another person is in danger of bodily harm; or
3. He/she learns of the intent to commit a felony.

V. FEES AND EXPENSES.

Each party shall deposit $150.00 with the Ashtabula County Clerk of Court by for the cost of the parenting coordinator.

OR, ALTERNATIVELY WHEN THE PARENTING COORDINATOR IS NOT WITH THE COURT

The mother shall be responsible for depositing $_____. The father shall be responsible for depositing $_____. These amounts shall be deposited directly with the parenting coordinator for fees and expenses associated with the parenting coordination. The parenting coordinator will bill at the rate of $_____ per hour and shall be paid by the parties within thirty (30) days of the date of the invoice. Any additional fees or expenses over the deposit shall be paid by the parties according to the following percentages: mother shall pay _____% and father shall pay _____%.

OR, ALTERNATIVELY,

The Court has found that a disparity in income exists between the parties. Therefore, the apportionment of the parenting coordinator's fees and expenses shall reflect each party's pro rata share of their combined incomes, which is determined to be _____% to Plaintiff and _____% to Defendant. The parenting coordinator will bill at the rate of $ per hour and shall be paid by the parties within thirty(30) days of the date of the invoice.

The parenting coordinator has the right to suspend all services until payment of any unpaid balance.

VI. PARENTING COORDINATION TERMS AND CONDITIONS.

A. CONTACT WITH THE PARENTING COORDINATOR.

1. The parenting coordinator will inform each party of the method of communication that they need to use throughout the parenting coordination process. The parenting coordinator shall not be contacted outside of the work hours they communicate to the parties unless the parenting coordinator specifically authorizes parties in writing to call after hours, and then only for the specific purposes allowed by the parenting coordinator. Any party who abuses the parenting coordinator's personal time may be sanctioned by the Court. If parties are in disagreement after normal business hours, the complaining party should refrain from contacting the parenting coordinator until the next business day following the incident.

2. Each party shall contact the parenting coordinator within ten (10) days of the date of this Order to schedule the first appointment. The parenting coordinator shall determine the schedule for subsequent appointments, which may be held over the telephone, in-person or by any other means deemed appropriate by the parenting coordinator.
3. The parties are responsible for providing the parenting coordinator with all necessary information to stay in communication with them, including all phone numbers, mailing and residence addresses and e-mail addresses.
4. The parties shall provide the parenting coordinator with copies of all pleadings, orders, and custody evaluation reports which relate to the issues to be brought to the parenting coordinator. The parenting coordinator shall also have direct access to all orders and pleadings on file in the case, including files under a Sealing Order of the court.

B. EMERGENCY CIRCUMSTANCES:

The parenting coordinator is not available to respond to emergencies. Urgent health matters shall be directed to the appropriate physician or emergency room service. Urgent mental health concerns shall be directed to the appropriate therapist. If a child is in imminent danger of harm, parties shall contact law enforcement, the Department of Children and Family Services or other appropriate agency, not the parenting coordinator.

C. RECORD KEEPING:

The parenting coordinator will maintain notes of the parenting coordination process in addition to print outs of your electronic and regular mail communications. These records will be maintained in the parenting coordinator file.
